

Ms. Aimee Belanger-Haas, GISP

Dean of the Business and Applied Technologies Division, Clark State Community College

Aimee Belanger-Haas, GISP, has served as dean of the Business and Applied Technologies Division at Clark State Community College since May 2015. She provides leadership for the academic programs in business, IT, agriculture, and engineering technology. Prior to being the dean, she served as the assistant dean to the division. She has also been a member of the faculty where she served as the program coordinator for the Geospatial and Advanced Technical Intelligence programs. She has over 15 years of extensive business and government experience in GIS. Under her leadership, the academic division is implementing a very successful $2.5 million Department of Labor Trade Adjustment Assistance

Community College and Career Training (TAACCCT) grant in Advanced Manufacturing. She has worked with business and industry leaders to deliver relevant and innovative academic programming in Advanced Manufacturing, Precision Agriculture, and Food Science. Aimee is working on her Doctorate degree at Ferris State University and received her Master of GIS from Penn State University and her Bachelor of Science from Laurentian University in Canada.